

WIFE BEATER GETS SENTENCE IN JAIL AFTER COURT TRIAL

A Former Army Captain, Charles Moreland, Must Serve Six Months

OWES $1800 SUPPORT

Wife Relates Stories of Several Severe Beatings By Husband

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 2 — A 46-year-old retired Army captain, Charles Moreland, formerly of 59 Downey Drive, Lacey Park, now of Ventnor, N. J., who is more than $1800 in arrears on a court support order, was sentenced by Judge Calvin S. Boyer, Tuesday, to serve not less than six months nor more than one year in the County Prison.

The defendant, who is a radio operating engineer and now receives $198 as pension, pleaded with Judge Boyer not to send him to jail after pleading guilty to assault and battery on his wife.

"What can I do in jail, your Honor?" the defendant asked the Court. "Stop drinking," said Judge Boyer. "That will be a fine occupation for you while in prison."

Mrs. Edna Moreland, 46, of 50 Downey Drive, Lacey Park, testified that her estranged husband would call her or the telephone incessantly from 11.10 until 1.15 at night, "beat her" until she was semi-conscious and kicked her so that the full imprint of his rubber heel was left on her body.

Chief Steward A. Munro, of the Warminster police, who corroborated her testimony concerning the injuries which she received Sept. 18, testified he took Mrs. Moreland to Abington Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Moreland, who said she and her husband have been married 21 years, testified he held her and the children at bay for hours while he brandished a sabre, harangued court officials because she would not remove a court support order and that he has been arrested in Pittsburgh, Virginia and other places because of mistreatment of herself and the children.

William M. Power, local attorney, testified that he receives hysterical telephone calls any hour of the night from Mrs. Moreland because her husband is annoying and abusing her.

A sister of the defendant, Mrs. Mildred Lloyd, a nurse, of Ventnor, N. J., commenting on the drinking habits of her brother, said: "When he is drunk he is one of the most

The accident occurred at 41st and Market streets, Philadelphia.

According to the Phila. police, Mr. Cope was crossing the street when hit by the car, operated by Herman Yates, Philadelphia.

The accident did not seem a serious one at the time, and Yates took the victim into his car and drove him to the Presbyterian Hospital. There the man was treated for a laceration of the head, and was discharged, apparently in a position to recover.

Police took him to the Thirty-second and Woodland avenue station to help him get in touch with relatives, and while there, he complained of feeling ill. An officer took him to the Phila. General for further observation, and four hours later he succumbed.

For the past five years, Mr. Cope had been living in Phila. Up to that time, he operated a farm in Hilltown township.

BUCKS MAN TO MARRY GIRL HIS MOTHER AIDED

Wedding To Follow Granting of Divorce In Bucks County Court

GIRL GIVEN A GIFT

NEWTOWN, Dec. 2 — Thomas M. Baker, of Myrtle Beach, S. C., formerly of Bucks county, will marry the girl he recently presented with a check for $7,500 and a half-interest in a music store, as a gift of appreciation from his mother.

The girl, Martha Vivian Culberth, announced the couple's plans yesterday. It was also brought out that the wedding will take place some time after Christmas, after Baker's divorce from his present wife, Mrs. Grace Baker, of Newtown, Bucks county, is absolute. The action is pending in the Bucks County Court at Doylestown.

Miss Culberth, employed in the South Carolina music store, befriended Baker's mother, Mrs. Melville G. Baker, of Germantown, who expressed her appreciation with the check and a half-interest in the store in which she worked. Her son was her representative in making the presentation.

The romantic angle of the story was not disclosed until the plans for the marriage were announced. Baker and Miss Culberth became acquainted last summer at Myrtle Beach, while the two women were also becoming closely attached to each other.

Baker said that his wife has taken a divorce action against him at Doylestown. The couple have three children.

WANT CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL AT CO. SEAT

Doylestown Chamber of Commerce Urges Locating Such There

NAME 2 COMMITTEES

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 2 — When directors of Doylestown Chamber of Commerce, Inc., met Monday evening, President Edward M. Hupp urged that every Doylestown man and woman be concerned with locating the new Central Bucks High School here. Two important committees were planned.

President Hupp named as members of the joint school committee Willard G. Hilstad, chairman, Kenneth A. Swanstrom, Frank T. Reynolds and George S. Hotchkiss. The fifth member of the committee will be named by Chairman Hilstad.

Declaring that the forming of a Central Bucks Joint School District is one of the most important issues facing the Chamber of Commerce right now, President Hupp said: "I think we should make the joint high school a reality."

Following a discussion by Councilman Frank W. Ely, who said he has received a letter from Thomas Ross, who outlined the activities and duties of a planning commission, President Hupp decided to support such a commission.

The commission, which will consist of five individuals, has no power other than to make suggestions for better planning of the town with reference to alterations, renovations and new construction.

It was decided to write Doylestown borough council a letter asking that a planning commission be named by council.

USE YOUR HEAD IN DRIVING, Chief Jones Tells Motorists

"Use your head and save a life—maybe your own."

With a "we're going to get tough" attitude, Chief of Police Linford J. Jones today warned motorists of the dangerous driving conditions brought about by a combination of winter weather and pre-Christmas activity.

"Snow, ice, sleet, fog—they all present extra hazards when driving," Chief Jones said, "and unless we take realistic precautions against them, there will be costly accidents and people getting hurt."

In making his statement, Chief Jones said that a report by the National Safety Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards showed about 65 per cent of the winter accidents occur on snow and ice. The report further stated, he said, that the second major cause for the 24 to 53 per cent increase in accident death rates over the summer rates in snow-belt states during the winter is caused by reduced visibility.

"To combat these hazards, be prepared," the Chief urged. "Antiskid chains are needed at times to counteract snow and ice. Use your tire chains when needed—and avoid an accidental missing link in your family circle on Christmas. Also, be sure that your windshield wipers, defrosters and headlights are in proper condition. These are all devices to make driving more safe in bad weather, but the real thing is the driver. It is up to him or her—to be extra careful and doubly alert," he added.

To make his warning stick, Chief Jones said that every accident will be thoroughly investigated to get at the cause, and added that "a few people might end up being booked for carelessness and negligence. We don't want death to take anybody's holiday."

VERDICT CAUSES MUCH SURPRISE IN COURT CASE

King Farms Negro Acquitted On Three Counts In Court

FOUND IN TRUCK CAB

Defendant Tells a Story of Being Brought to Truck By a Friend

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 2 — Astonishing court officials, including Judge Calvin S. Boyer and Assistant District Attorney Willard S. Curtin, by their action in the face of the Commonwealth's evidence, a jury Tuesday afternoon acquitted a King Farms Negro worker, Thomas Lucas, 30, of Morrisville, of three counts, larceny, receiving stolen goods and operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent.

Although Judge Boyer and the District Attorney did not comment on the jury's decision in the court room, they were surprised by the apparent disregard for the testimony of an eye-witness, a Morrisville police officer, who arrested the defendant November 11th.

Officer Harry J. Tomlinson, of the Morrisville Police Department, who was summoned to the lumber yard of Caleb Foster about three o'clock in the morning and found the defendant sitting in the cab of a truck, positively identified the defendant as the same man he dragged from the truck.

The owner of the lumber yard, Caleb Foster, testified that he awakened about three o'clock in the morning and heard the motor in the truck running and the vehicle being moved about 10 feet.

He notified the Morrisville Police Department and Officer Tomlinson arrested the defendant, who was still sitting in the cab of the truck. The keys had been left in the truck by the proprietor-lumber dealer.

"The defendant, Lucas, was sitting in the driver's seat, and when I asked him to get out he moved over on the other side," testified Officer Tomlinson.

"We have been having a lot of trouble with King Farms workers, who take cars and then ditch them near the farm," said the officer.

The defendant's defense was that "George" took him to the truck and then fled from the scene before the officer arrived. "I only intended to sleep in the truck for the night," drawled Lucas.

Officer Tomlinson, who arrested Lucas, testified at that time the defendant was

BACK TO THE CAVES

American industry didn't wait for the recent advice of the National Security Resources Board to disperse as a protection against atom-bomb attack. A Connecticut aircraft firm, for example, has moved to Texas, and a Massachusetts munitions company has built a vast bombproof underground plant.

The Chance Vought Division of the United Aircraft Corporation plans, builds and tests Navy Corsairs and Jet Pirates. It has moved 30,000 tons of machines and 1,500 families to a new plant 12 miles outside Dallas. Only key employees were taken on the 1,687-mile move and their total moving costs were paid. Five thousand employees have had to find new jobs.

The Texas site, in addition to probable immunity from atom-bomb attack, simplifies the humidity control problem created by the company's extensive use of metalite and fabricite, both sensitive to moisture.

In Massachusetts, the Smith and Wesson Company's underground plant has been built under a 126-acre swamp. It has its own electric power plant and sewage system, special air raid shelters, and doors that can be sealed against gas attack. There are watch towers, low buildings and landing strips on the ground.

This is just the beginning. A recent sampling of manufacturing firms conducted by the National Industrial Conference Board indicated that 28 per cent already have definite dispersal policies under way.

Soon the old homes of the Cave Dwellers in the Southwest may have new tenants.

GRANGE AT ITS BEST

In Portland, Maine, the National Grange has held a notable convention—without doubt one of the most responsible and statesmanlike in the history of that great farm organization.

It revised its philosophy of the part to be played by marketing controls in the federal farm program. The new philosophy was summed up in two words: Controls should be a "last resort." The Grange voted to support repeal of discriminatory taxes on oleomargarine.

The delegates defeated a proposal to advocate continuance, indefinitely, of the rigid guarantee of 90 per cent of parity on basic crops such as corn, wheat and cotton. They endorsed "flexible parity"—60 to 90 per cent—for all crops under the protection of the marketing program. They agreed with Secretary of Agriculture Brannan that potatoes should no longer come under 90 per cent of parity.

The Grange's action was as much as to say it was time the taxpayers were relieved of holding the bag on surpluses of any crop. Perhaps the delegates could see how serious it could be if the price of corn, for example, dropped much below parity. Public anger at huge subsidy payments might endanger the whole marketing program.

THE CAPITOL WHIRL

A Digest of Things Political Occurring At Harrisburg

By International News Service

HARRISBURG, Dec. 2 — (INS)

— Pennsylvania's trucking industry has fired the opening gun in renewal of its campaign to lift weight restrictions on tractors and tandem axle semi-trailers. Known variously as "big rigs" and "box-cars," the huge four or six wheel tractors and double axle trailers are limited to 45,000 pounds. The industry wants to boost the limit to 62,000 pounds. The state highways department has opposed changing the restrictions in the past, contending heavier loads would damage roads, but despite this truckers won a victory shortly after the end of the war when the legislature boosted the limit for tractors and single axle trailers to 45,000 pounds.

The campaign now calls for increasing the limit of single axle trailers to 50,000 pounds and upping double-axle trailers to 62,000 pounds. The battle over weights is a touchy subject during each session of the general assembly. The most notable was in 1941 when then State Senator A. J. Cavalcante, of Uniontown, now congressman-elect, charged on the floor of the upper house that cash had been paid "on the barrelhead" to assure passage of a bill increasing weights. The measure never passed.

The state internal affairs department has come up with a bit of law which undoubtedly is not generally known concerning care of juvenile delinquents. It states in a monthly bulletin that "Pennsylvania law prohibits detention of a juvenile in the same building with an adult criminal." Technically, juveniles cannot be detained in the "same building" while awaiting arraignment or transfer to juvenile detention homes. In Pennsylvania, a juvenile is anyone under 18 years of age. The limit was changed from 16 to 18 by the legislature in 1939.

Local option elections which will be held in almost a score of Pennsylvania municipalities during 1949 have spurred early action in the top command of the Pennsylvania retail liquor dealers association. Vice president J. Grant Peterson, chairman of the local option committee, pointed out that "dry" recognize their stake in a big vote and are out all-year round drumming up support for their unpopular cause." He said tavern keepers, being "on the scene," should be very active in nullifying the footwork of drys and warned that "unless we retailers do the same, and then triple our efforts on election day, many of us may find ourselves on the outside looking in after the 1949 elections." Peterson said the committee has been organized for "quick action" in trouble zones but the burden of the work was on the retailer.

The state tax equalization board will file a report soon on the true or market, valuations of real estate in Pennsylvania's 2544 school districts. The board, set up by the legislature during the 1947 session, undoubtedly will provide the commonwealth a new and more equitable basis for distributing funds for education. Many districts are levying taxes on the basis of local assessed valuations which in many instances is lower than true value. If subsidies for education are shifted from assessed to actual valuations many districts face state appropriation losses running up to $720 a teaching unit, according to P. H. Wueller, research director for the joint state government commission.

Four Men Serve On "Bridge" Panel

them, Fred Norcross, Burlington County Bridge Commissioner, also spoke on present-day problems concerning the bridges. Walter L. Miller, Bucks County structural engineer, gave his version of present-day bridge problems. On display at the forum was a large scale model relief map of Trenton's new proposed "Freeway" with a proposed bridge connection to Pennsylvania at Morrisville. Neal Nolan, of Morrisville, said that he was opposed to the present proposed "Freeway." He said that such would work a hardship on Morrisville and would destroy some beautiful property there. He offered an alternate plan as a substitute for the "Freeway."

A very interesting discussion followed with Mr. Shalleross and Mr. Miller answering the many questions that arose. The meeting adjourned with the group singing the "Star Spangled Banner."

GIVES INCORPORATION DECREE, LEGION HOME

Judge Hiram H. Keller Grants Order After Court Hearing

OVER $16,000 ASSETS

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 2—A decree and order for incorporation of the Quakertown American Legion Home Association has been granted by Judge Hiram H. Keller following a hearing in the Court of Common Pleas.

Membership will include active members who are members of the Wallace Willard Keller Post of the American Legion; women's auxilary members; veteran-associate members; and honorary members. Frederick S. Erdman, 52, a Quakertown grocer, and president of the new Home Association, was called as a witness to outline the plans of the proposed corporation, which has assets of approximately $16,000 in addition to two buildings. The plans call for the erection of a new building to cost between $30,000 and $35,000.

The dues for active members—veterans of World War 1 and 2 only, will be $2 per year. The veteran-associate membership will be $5 per year; the honorary membership, $10 per year; and women's auxiliary, $2 per year.

The hearing was held before Judge Hiram H. Keller.

There will be nine members on the board of directors, the term of office to be three years, with hold-over directors.

After being in existence for one year the Home Association plans to apply for a liquor license; to have the present club license of the Legion transferred to the Home Association.

Will Give Diabetes Tests Without Cost

As part of its program to find an estimated one million unknown or unrecognized diabetics, the American Diabetes Association has proclaimed the week of December 6th to 12th as a nationwide Diabetes Week.

Abington Memorial Hospital has arranged to have tested for diabetes the relatives of all patients attending its diabetic dispensary. It urges relatives of other diabetics as well as all persons in the area who are overweight, to have their blood tested during that week.

The hospital will furnish this service, without cost, to all persons having blood sugars taken on Tuesday, December 7th, and Wednesday, December 8th, in the hospital's dispensary.

It is estimated that there are probably two million diabetics in the United States, which number is steadily increasing. It is estimated that over four million persons, or about three percent, of the total population may eventually become diabetic.

Diabetes is usually mild at its beginning but if untreated, may result in complications which are disabling and which eventually may lead to semi-invalidism. Dietary treatments and the new forms of insulin have enabled physicians to assure to known diabetics a normal and healthy life, if a simple procedure of treatment is followed.

BENSALEM SCORED EIGHT WINS AND TWO TIE GAMES

Bensalem Township High with eight victories and two ties was one of the six undefeated schoolboy teams of the Philadelphia area. Other undefeated schools were: South Catholic, Swarthmore, Ridley, Township, Lansdale, and Collingswood, N. J.

The Owls, coached by Marlon Vanhorn, of East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, terminated its regular season with a 14-6 triumph over Langhorne High in their annual Thanksgiving Day contest. The Owls came from behind to win the tilt.

Victims of one of the best seasons of the Cornwells Heights school were: St. Francis, P. S. D., Morrisville, Southampton, Pennsylvania, Lower Moreland, Council Rock and Langhorne. The two schools which tied the Blue and Gray were Mt. Holly and Bristol.

The Owls scored 245 points for the season while their foes counted 38. Coach Harry McClester's Bristol Warriors ended up with four wins, five defeats, and a tie. However, the Warriors won over their traditional foe, Morrisville, on Thanksgiving Day, which makes the season successful in the eyes of the Bristol fans. The Bristolians also finished in a deadlock with Bensalem for the Lower Bucks County title. Bristol had the toughest schedule of the schools in the L. B. C. L., and only the Pottstown game was a rout.

Bristol holding its own against such schools as Vineland, Abington, Trenton Catholic and Burlington and scoring wins over Hatboro, Conshohocken, Langhorne and Morrisville.

Although its coach, Dominick "Dags" Sagolla, was in a hospital after being operated upon for appendicitis, the inspired Council Rock team won the "little three" championship with a 21-12 triumph over Southampton on Thanksgiving Day. Council Rock finished the season with five wins, one loss, and a tie. The only defeat was a 6-9 loss to Bensalem. Reports have it that Sagolla will only lose one player at graduation, this June so look for great things at Newtown next season.

Pennsbury's only win of the season was at the expense of St. Francis Vocational School of Edgington. The team lost eight games and scored 45 points while its opponents racked up 248.

After a good start, Langhorne, defending Lower Bucks County champions, finished in the doldrums. The eleven coached by "Jim" Egan won three of its first four contests and then dropped its last five. The champions did not gain a Lower Bucks League triumph.

George School won its last four games in succession to finish its season with five triumphs and three losses. It scored 121 points while holding its foes to 79.

Morrisville ended its gridiron season with five wins, four losses and a tie. It finished third in the Lower Bucks County League.

The Young Women's Circle will feature a Christmas program at a meeting of the Women's Association in First Presbyterian Church this evening.

Miss Marion Clark will be in charge of the program, with refreshments following. They will be served by Mrs. Bartis Robinson and her committee.

Churches of this borough are to conduct a religious census on December 12th. The Rev. William T. Warren, Jr., rector of the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation, states the census will determine the religious denomination of new residents locating here in the past five years.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE TO HAVE A CIRCUIT OF 8 TEAMS

At a meeting of the Bristol Basketball League held last night in the Diamond Sporting Goods Store, Mill street, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Joseph Diamanti; vice-president, Anthony Pfaffenrath; secretary, Robert Barotro; treasurer, Anthony Pastor; advisor, Thomas Juno.

Of the applications received, the managers voted to accept the Franklin A. C. and the Morrisville Hoopers into the circuit to make it an eight-team league. The other teams are: Fifth Ward Sporting Club, Rohm & Haas, Hibernians, St. Ann's, Falls Alumni, and Profy's.

By accepting the above named teams the managers were able to maintain the same boundary limit as in previous years.

The league will play its first games on Sunday, December 12th, on the Rohm & Haas court and will play every Sunday afternoon thereafter. During the month of December, the league will play on Wednesday evenings on Rohm & Haas floor. In January, the league will play one game a week on the high school floor. The high school floor will be fixed during the Christmas holiday, preventing the league from using the same.

Henry Morgan was appointed official referee for the season.

Team representatives were: Profy's, Dan Petrino; Rohm & Haas, John Stein; Fifth Ward, "Al" Cordisco; Falls Alumni, William Leigh; St. Ann's, Fred Barbetta; and Hibernians, Peter Harkins.

Inside Your Congress

British Socialism

—by—
SAMUEL B. PETTENGILL
"The Gentleman from Indiana"

Britain's Minister of Health, Mr. Bevan, is amazed at the "bad sight" which his countrymen are developing. "The rush for spectacles is so great that it has overtaken production capacity."

"Free" false teeth are also in great demand. It is reported that dentists pull each other's teeth, which they formerly did as a pleasant, neighborly, mutual service, and then send bills to the government for payment.

Such is the result of the politicians taking over medical care. Even Mr. Bevan protests at the stampede for "free" service. "Because things are free," he says, "is no reason why people should abuse their opportunities. This is a great test of the maturity of the British people, insofar as they have all the resources of the medical profession at their disposal without charge."

One may sympathize with the plight of the Minister of Health, but to describe the system as "free" or "without charge" is the mark of a dishonest mind. Of course, it is all paid for. Doctors, dentists and nurses don't do their work for nothing, even in un-merry England.

"Something for nothing" is vote grease de luxe. But when millions get something for nothing, other millions get nothing for something. The same sort of relief rackets are growing in this country and the cost goes up also. The American Municipal Association reports that the relief load has gone up 136% during the past three years. And this during the biggest boom and largest employment in history!

As the Gadarene swine rushed down a steep place to the sea to be drowned, voters and taxpayers also blindly join the stampede for "free." The voters in Oregon woke up the day after the election with a headache. They found that they had approved an old-age pension plan of $50 a month regardless of need. Treat 'em alike—pauper and millionaire. It's a free country, isn't it?

The Oregon joker was the dis-sure that the cost of free pensions for all was three times as much as the present cost of the State government in all its branches! Bond companies about to buy an Oregon State bond issue immediately withdrew their bids.

Just another case of the "maturity" of the people which Mr. Bevan is wondering about! Today in England, whether they work or not, or pay for private medical insurance or not, or are British subjects or not, anybody can ask for a glass eye, wig, truss, operation or ambulance, and "no charge." Just pay your taxes, that's all.

The British airlines, government-owned and politically-operated, lost $15,000,000 this past year. That is 5% more than the previous year, and it is expected that the losses will continue, if not increase still more next year. The European Recovery Plan, however, enables the British Socialists to "recover" their losses out of American pocketbooks—including Oregon's!

There is one ebb in the tide of this on-coming Socialist sea. The Australians went "left" long before England did. They have had a longer look at it than the Britishers. In an election last spring, the disillusioned "down - under" overwhelmingly defeated a proposal to give their Federal government permanent control over prices, rents, etc. Our own Federal government wants what the Australians reject!

What was it that Poor Richard said about "Experience is a dear school?"

OFFER WIDE VARIETY OF TOYS FOR CHRISTMAS

Stores Have Great Array Ready For Santa's Selection

PRICES REASONABLE

"The kids can have anything they want this Christmas except an atom bomb," says a well-known merchant.

That sums up the situation in stores where you can buy anything from a candy cane to a log cabin (ready for occupancy)—if you have the price.

And, like it or not, the chances are that you will be among those who will help break a $300,000,000 retail sales record because you are going to get more for your dollars than at any time since the war.

Toy manufacturers say you are going to buy more than ever because, despite the increase in price of raw materials, you can expect to find twice the number of low and medium priced toys this Yuletide.

The emphasis on 1948 toys, oddly enough, isn't on the atomic and jet-propelled. Blame it on the peacetime draft or what you will, the fact remains that there is a decided return to gadgets emphasizing the constructive.

And this calls into play most of the pre-World War toys, but with plenty of new twists so that they are even more fun today.

Again high on the youngsters' hit parade are the erector sets which cost anywhere from a couple of dollars to a couple of ten dollar bills.

There are miniature printing presses on which the young editor can print a neighborhood newspaper, and there's enough cowboy gear to outfit the most elaborate juvenile ranch.

The budding Lincoln can have his own log cabin—if Pop can afford the $55 price tag. It comes complete with chintz curtains, rough hewn chair and table and no floor.

Little mothers have much to cheer about in this year's crop of dolls. They cry, they eat, they have to be changed, and you can even wash their hair. The price ranges from $55 tops to anything you care to pay.

The tots can enjoy swings selling at $6.95 and if Pop is free with the shekels he can buy them a complete outdoor set including a saw and a 10-foot slide, the latter for $49.50.

You can get a miniature lumberyard complete with building blueprints, and your young housewife can have a completely equipped kitchen, including an electric toaster in miniature.

Added to these are the regular standbys—doing excellent business at reasonable prices. These include bicycles, train sets (guaranteed to make daddy delirious), fairy tales on records, and books with such intriguing titles as "Brenda Starr Reporter," "Wynken, Blynken and Nod!" And beautiful editions of Tom Sawyer.

The atom bomb in miniature? Next year, maybe!

POSTAL EMPLOYEES READY FOR "RUSH"

Enjoying Their Last Peaceful Week-End Before Xmas Mail Deluge

ASK CO-OPERATION

Postal employees are enjoying their last peaceful weekend before wading into the annual deluge of Christmas mail.

A cheerful stream of Christmas greeting cards and gay packages is already pouring into the post office. It is expected to reach flood proportions this week, following Postmaster Joseph P. Duffy's warning that all packages and all Christmas cards for out-of-state delivery should be in the mail by Friday, December 10.

"If they are mailed later, some may not be delivered until after Christmas," he warned.

"Many people have their Christmas lists almost complete, but are delaying until they can fill in just a few missing addresses," the postmaster said. "It would help us a great deal if on Monday and Tuesday, people would mail all the cards and gifts they have ready or can get ready."

Post office windows are most crowded at lunch time, the postmaster reported. He advised mailing packages between nine and ten

a. m. and between 1:30 and 3:30 p. m. to avoid long lines and aching feet.

Greeting cards for local delivery should be mailed at least a week before Christmas day. Including zone numbers in addresses speeds delivery, the postmaster said.
